

Coaching Inside Organizations

AN APPROVED INTERNATIONAL COACHING
FEDERATION CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

This is a highly experiential coach training program built on adult-learning principles. It is competency based, organizationally relevant and intentionally practical. Theory is mixed with reflection, discussion and practice, allowing you to conceptualize, synthesize and apply learning in real scenarios. Coaches who are trained in an ICF-approved program represent the gold standard of coaches.

Best in Class Faculty

This program is led by an ICF Master Certified Coach. All faculty and coaches are practicing ICF credentialed coaches, with internal coaching experience.

Additional Faculty include: Jane Bishop, PCC, Brian Alvo, ACC, Matt Kersey, ACC, Maureen Frazer-Monroe, ACC, Bronson Edwards, PCC, Horace McCormick, BCC, et-al.

Who should attend?

Leaders, managers, professionals, aspiring coaches, and/or internal consultants/clinicians who want to increase their ability to create a climate for optimal performance, build a more trusting and empowering environment, as well as, to foster a culture of coaching.

Together these modules prepare the participant to engage in successful coaching conversations that, foster genuine connections and facilitate the development of potential. In addition to coaching skills, participants will learn various frameworks and techniques that can be put into practice immediately.

CERTIFICATION

Upon completion of the program, including the practicum, participants will receive the designation of Certified Professional Coach.

ICF MEMBERSHIP

Once enrolled in this program, participants are eligible to become members of the International Coach Federation (ICF).

Curriculum

This is a full-immersion program, where you will be provided a safe, experiential environment that enhances your personal and professional development as a coach. The program also provides you the opportunity to coach and be coached. We subscribe to the principle of spaced learning, delivering the program in three modules that build on each other: The Coaching Essentials, Advance Coaching and the Capstone module.
